Read the passage and answer the question 1, 2 and 3.

My name is Alvi. I live in Dhaka, but my family is from Chilmari in Kurigram. My grandmother and many of my relatives still live there. Last June, I went to visit my grandmother, my uncle and cousins in Chilmari. Their house is near the Jamuna River.

My uncle is a fisherman. My grandfather was a fisherman, but he died about 10 years ago. I didn't know him. When my sister and I visited Chilmari in June, we had so much fun! Our grandmother told us stories about our family and about the history of Bangladesh. My uncle caught a lot of fish. My favourite fish is "Chapila." It is thin, white fish. It's delicious! We helped our grandmother make the fish every night. We also made rice and vegetables.

It was a very special trip. We talked with our relatives and learned about our family and our country. We also sang song together.

Emperor Akbar was on the habit of putting riddles and puzzles to his countries. He often asked questions which were strange and witty. It took much wisdom to answer these questions. Once, he asked very strange questions. The countries were damp folded by hos questions.

Akbar glanced at his countries. As he looked, one by one the heads began to hang low in search of an answer. It was at this moment that Bridal entered the country yard. Bridal who know the nature of the emperor quickly grasped the situation and asked, "May I know the question so that I can try for an answer?" Akbar said, "How many crows are there in this city?" "Without even a moment's thought, Bridal replied, "There are fifty thousand five hundred and eighty-nine crows, my Lord" "How can you be so sure?" asked Akbar. Bridal said, "Make your men count, my Lord. If you find more crows it means some have come to visit their relatives here. If you find ten number of crows it means some have gone to visit their relatives elsewhere." Akbar was pleased very much by Bridals wit.
